The Egosoft Studios group of companies was founded in France in 1992 as an independent game development company. It currently employs nearly 200 people. Together with all its subsidiaries, Egosoft publishes games for a broad range of formats, including mobile phones, the PC, and consoles such as the Xbox, PlayStation, and Nintendo DS. This new world, fantasy, and highly challenging game created by Egosoft, brings players back to the work of creation, and offers an exciting narrative, challenging quests, and multiple endings. ABOUT EGOSOFT STUDIOS: Egosoft Studios is the core game development company. Founded in 1992, this France-based company consists of a range of studios and subsidiaries that include: Egosoft Entertainment and Studios, an award-winning independent game development studio; Egosoft Digital, an independent mobile games company whose Japanese subsidiary Egosoft Studio Tokyo and US subsidiary Egosoft Studios collaborate on projects as Egosoft Europe and Egosoft Studios; Egosoft Magasin, a video game retailer and an intermediary between licensors and licensees; and Egosoft Leisure, an international developer of leisure and education games, which has recently released the "Dragons Crown" series. For more information on Egosoft, visit: From a promotional site: "DRAGONS COVE REFUGE. Immerse yourself in the world of ALO, a video game inspired by the legend of King Arthur. ALO: Realms of Kordia is the first game in the ALO franchise. Its objective is to rewrite the legend of King Arthur in an action, MMORPG, set in the era of Europe. The very first fantasy RPG with a tactical turn based combat system. This is a game you'll love taking part in with your friends." Toward the year 4428, the landscape of the game is characterized by a shattered civilization and many dangers. Players can assume the role of the last living lords of the country, each one ruling over his own lands. On the other hand, the kingdom is under the control of an evil emperor and the heroes must use their skills to eliminate the worst evils. The lands of Kordia are immersed in a dark, deep and bloody plot. GAME FEATURES - Cinematic story: All scenes in ALO are based on the historical legends of King Arthur. You will be totally immersed in
