Uncovering hidden operational risks 02/04/2014 As long as production runs according to plan, possible risks often remain undiscovered until an unexpected event triggers an incident. HAZOP studies can help uncover these hidden risks and take preventive and systematic actions to improve safety. Rainer Semmler, TV SD Chemie Service, discusses what might happen if workflows in the process are interrupted. Full Story... Predicting when drives need replacing 14/10/2019 ABB has extended the scope of its ABB Ability Digital Powertrain concept, which connects drives, motors, pumps and bearings, with a new Condition-Based Maintenance service option for drives to provide an early warning of any abnormal conditions that might cause a drive to fail prematurely. Full Story... It only takes one poll to educate and inform your audience 12/04/2015 Getting the word out in a non-threatening way can be a challenge, especially for a single poll that is of little consequence. So, why did 82% of those participating to our 2016 OPEN poll vote for keeping the label design as is? Should we re-evaluate the label and consider how it can better inform/engage our audience? Download the free white paper and find out how! Full Story...
